

SportSync

Linking strategies, Elevating Success

sportsync.pro

SportSync

We are a company specialised in advising and supporting third parties in the implementation of effective work and results measurement systems in the field of professional football.

sportsync.pro

SportSync[■]

■ We work with companies in the technology sector dedicated to the development of software and high performance sports applications and with entities and professionals in the elite football sector: federations, football clubs, football coaches, performance coaches and rehabilitation coaches.

sportsync.pro

Our objective is based on the development and implementation of different work and training systems in the field of elite football under a new methodology, with which we achieve a great optimisation of work times and results.

Linking strategies, Elevating Success

Our professional experience and our team, made up of professionals from different areas of elite football, has allowed us to create and develop real-life work systems under our own measurable, effective and precise methodology.

Get to know our services

- Analysis, development and implementation of new strategic methodologies to optimise work and training systems in sports clubs and organizations.
- Counsel and assistance in the development of marketing and sales strategies of technological products and sport equipment with a practical and education-based approach.
- Advice and support in the development of sport management software.
(Athlete Management Systems)
- Advice and support in the development of software for sports applications (training load monitoring, testing and training prescription).

How can we help you?

01

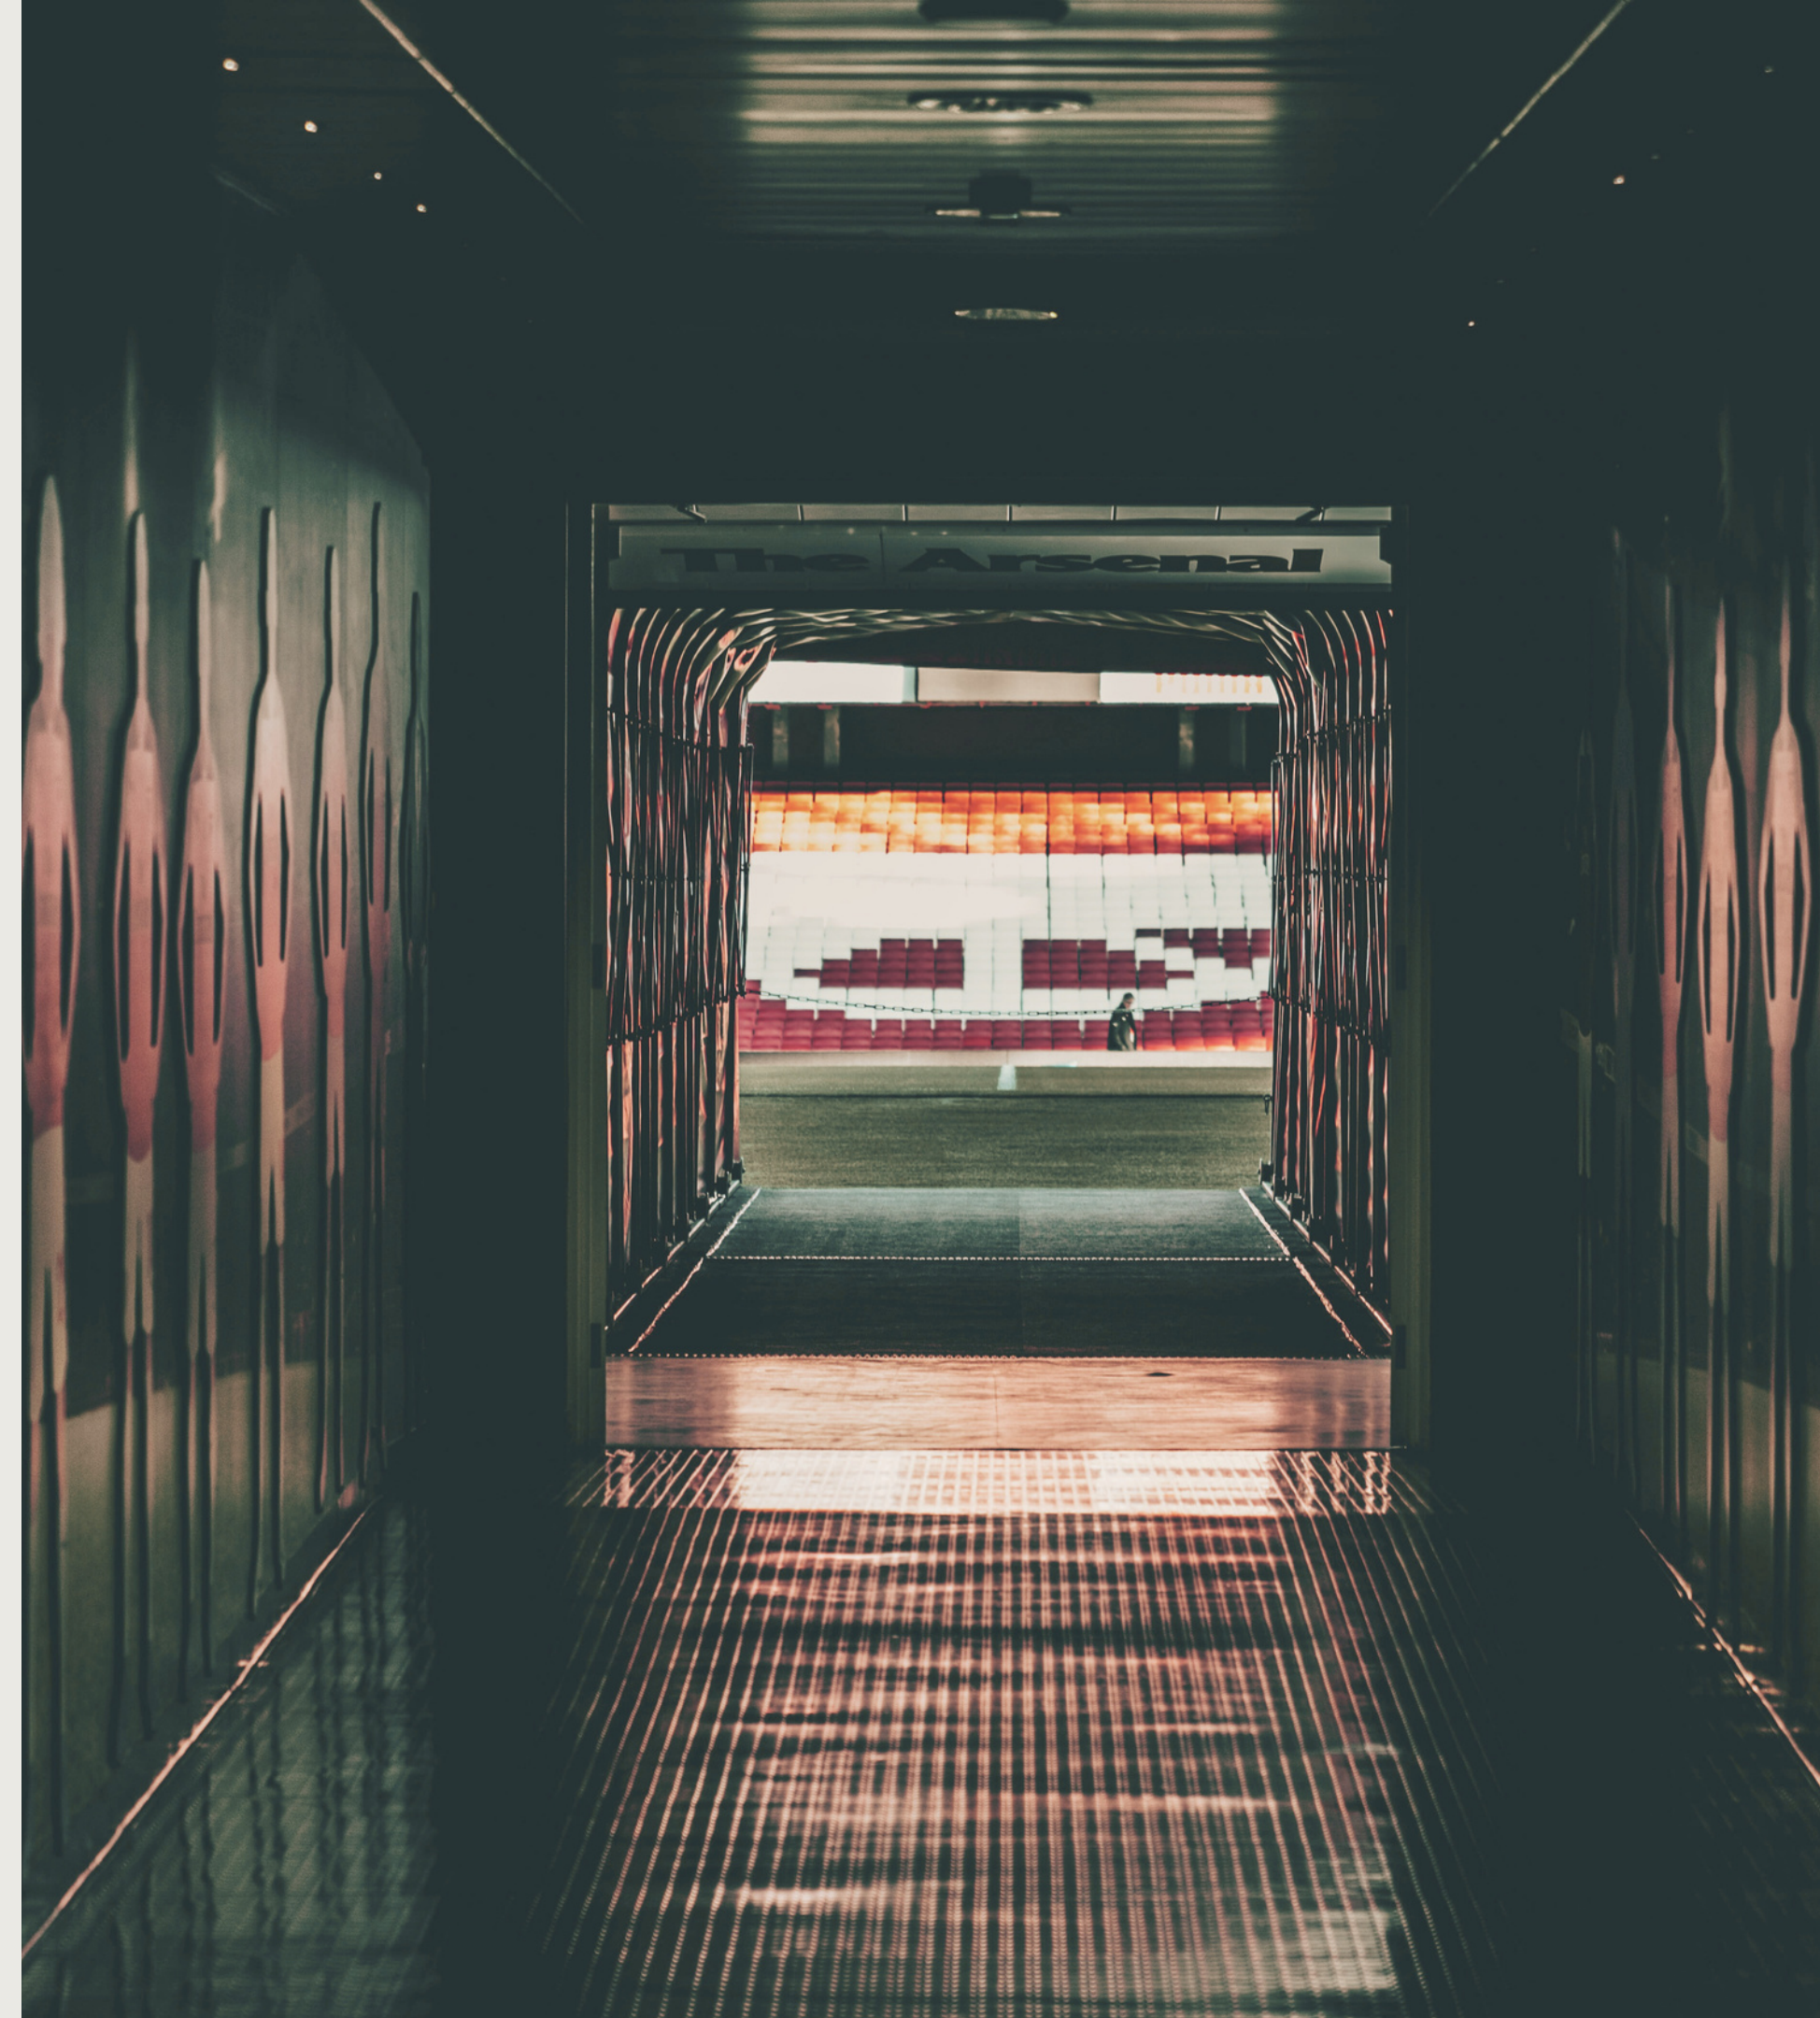

Our experience and knowledge of the sector make us the leading sports consultancy company in the market.

02

Our approach and methodology is pioneering, measurable and effective.

03

We will accompany you throughout the development and implementation process.

Contact us

If you would like us to provide you with more information about our processes and services, please contact us.

Spain +34 615 109 061

South Korea +82 10 4390 3273

hello@sportsync.pro

sportsync.pro